Recently Rodney and Regina Twiss drove from Cornwall to Croatia and return to the Cotswolds, visiting their many International Agents and staying in a range of unique accommodations – as diverse as historic pubs, inns, chateaux's, clubs etc. which gave them many reflections on their own accommodation.

As Rodney remarked nothing was as exciting as the Fire Engine Room, but many of the accommodations have helped to provide fond memories of a number of regions in which they travelled, such as:

'Headland Hotel' in Newquay, Cornwall
'Royal Crescent' in Bath
'Sloan Club' in Chelsea
'Willet Inn' in Dover
'Falkland Arms Hotel' in Great Tew
'Hotel Victoria' in Torino
'Hotel Savoia Excelsior' in Trieste
'Hotel Goldner Hirsch' in Salzburg

N.B If you are travelling in these areas we can very much recommend these accommodations.

With the addition of Croatia, Rodney has now travelled to 70 countries across the globe.
